

Brotherhood of Light

- 1 I can hear those gentle voices singing
 b c d g B B A g b d
 In the far, distant regions of the night
 b c d d g B A C B d d g B B A g b d
 --Scattered starpoints on black velvet,
 d d c] d B A g f] g
 Clustered in the brotherhood of light.
- 2 Listen to their sounds through the galaxies, e e g] B C] B A g] e e b e e g] B C] A e g f]
 The crackling, singing silence of their lives
 g g e f] g g f] e d b Pouring through the boundaries of darkness d c a c d b c d e
 This magical harmony of night.
- 1 Seeds of soundless thoughts drawn by fireflies Flicker in the silhouetted trees.
 The backporch is frosted in the star shine
 Where I sit listening to the breeze.
- 2 The curtain lifts, the darkness deeply opens, Revealing city diamonds all aglow.
 I know somewhere another watches.
 We are joined in this magic that we know.
- 1 I can hear those gentle voices singing
 In the far, distant regions of the night,
 Scattered starpoints on black velvet,
 Clustered in the brotherhood of light.
