

Hall of Mirrors

e A C e f C B
Come with me to London Fair.
B B A g| B A e e
There is a Hall of Mirrors there
A A f A g e c d e
Standing in the darkness of our dreams.

In walls of glass our shadows play,
Gliding darkly into day
Through hidden doors unclosed
Against the wind.

Refrain:

D E F D C D E
Hall of Mirrors! Amber Dawn!
D D B A g| A B
How the night wind rushes on,
C C A B C B F E B
Passing through the garden of our fears.

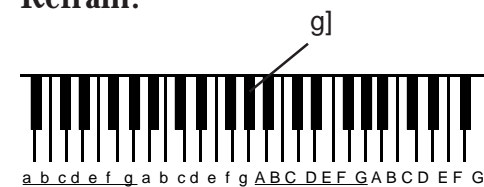

In flowered fields our fortune grows
Fatal petals no one knows
And stalks the crystal stillness of the halls.

And through the rooms all up and down
Mirrors turn their dark face 'round.
We fade as two shadows from the wall.

Refrain:

Now we stand behind the glass
Watching staring people pass
'Til the mirrors turn again into our time.

Refrain:

© 1990 Howard Jones

